

World Literature Teacher Job Position

Description

Valor Christian High School is seeking a dedicated and passionate individual to join our team as a World Literature Teacher. As a part of our team, you will have the opportunity to shape the minds of young students by cultivating their love for literature and guiding them through an exploration of the world's diverse cultures through the filter of God's timeless Word.

In this role, you will be responsible for creating engaging lesson plans, choosing relevant literature texts, and delivering dynamic and thought-provoking lessons that inspire students to think critically and develop a deeper understanding of different worldviews. You will have the chance to foster a supportive and inclusive classroom environment where students feel empowered to share their thoughts and engage in meaningful discussions.

The ideal candidate should be a born-again believer. You should have a strong background in World Literature, with the ability to analyze and interpret various literary works from different time periods and cultures. You should also possess excellent communication skills and be able to effectively articulate complex ideas to students of diverse learning abilities.

Responsibilities

- Develop and implement comprehensive lesson plans that align with the curriculum and educational standards of Valor.
- Select and recommend literature texts that encompass a wide range of genres, cultures, and perspectives that will instill Christian and values in our students.
- Foster a dynamic and inclusive classroom environment that promotes student engagement and active participation.
- Teach students how to analyze and interpret literary works through discussions, close readings, and written assignments.

- Provide constructive feedback and guidance to students to enhance their reading, writing, and critical thinking skills.
- Stay updated on educational best practices and implement them in your teaching
- Maintain accurate records of student attendance, grades, and assessments
- Engage in weekly communication with parents

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in English Literature, Comparative Literature, or a related field.
- Teaching certification and/or relevant teaching experience in World Literature.
- Deep knowledge and understanding of a diverse range of literary works from different cultures and time periods.
- Ability to create engaging and interactive lesson plans that cater to students' individual learning needs.
- Strong communication skills, both verbal and written, with the ability to effectively explain complex ideas.
- Good organizational skills and the ability to manage multiple tasks efficiently.
- Strong passion for teaching and mentoring students, with a commitment to their academic and spiritual growth.

Time

This position is part-time and begins fall of 2024.

Salary

To be determined, based on experience and qualifications.
