

Rhetoric Teacher Job Position

Description

Valor Christian High School is currently seeking a highly qualified and dedicated Rhetoric teacher to join our team at Valor Christian High School. You will play a crucial role in guiding and shaping students' communication skills, both written and oral, for the purpose of training them to persuade others of the truths of God's Word and His gospel. The ideal candidate will be a growing, born-again believer, with a passion to disciple students and build thriving relationships with them. You will need to know how to organize a class and make the learning process meaningful and profitable.

In this role, you will be responsible for designing and delivering engaging and interactive lessons that help students develop critical thinking, public speaking, and persuasive writing skills. You will create a positive and supportive learning environment where students can explore and express their thoughts and beliefs in a respectful manner. You will also have the opportunity to integrate biblical principles and values into your lessons, helping students develop a strong moral character.

Responsibilities

- Plan and deliver engaging lessons that incorporate a variety of instructional methods and materials
- Teach students how to effectively analyze, interpret, and discuss a wide range of texts and speeches
- Foster critical thinking skills by encouraging students to question, evaluate, and construct arguments
- Provide individualized instruction and support to students in written and oral communication
- Assess student progress and provide timely feedback on assignments, projects, and presentations
- Maintain accurate records of student attendance, grades, and assessments
- Engage in weekly communication with parents

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Education, English, or a related field
- Valid teaching credential or certification
- Strong knowledge of rhetoric, including classical and modern rhetorical theories
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Proficient in using technology for instructional purposes
- Ability to create a supportive and inclusive classroom environment
- Familiarity with Christian values and the ability to integrate them into the curriculum
- Stay updated on educational best practices and implement them in your teaching
- Strong moral values and discipline
- Experience teaching in a Christian school or working with Christian students (preferred)

Time

This position is part-time and begins fall of 2024.

Salary

To be determined, based on experience and qualifications.
